ORR School Committee Honors Librarians

At their June 8 meeting, the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee honored the good work of the ORR District's librarians: Nancy James (Junior High School) and Deborah Dahill (Senior High School). These two individuals were spotlighted by School Committee Chairman Debbie DeWalt, and Vice Chairman Sheri Gay. Both Ms. James and Ms. Dahill were praised for their hard work and dedication to the task of putting the school library resources back into first rate order following the dislocation caused by the building project.

of partial funding is still used today. Needing more room, a second move had to be made in 1892 to a building on the corner of Water and Cannon Streets.

Many substantial gifts have been made over the years by local residents and summer residents; including a grandfather clock and a bust of Beethoven, both of which are still in the library, and many large oil paintings of noted people, including one of George Purrington Jr., who donated $10,000 for the present library. In 1896 a model of a bark, made at sea by Jr. Joseph Woodville Bolles and donated by his relatives, was restored by Mr. Albert Rowland. Some items too costly to restore were either auctioned at the Friends Meeting House paper sale or donated to the Mattapoisett Historical Museum for more appropriate display.

Now

The present library, that was opened on September 5, 1904, will be celebrating its 100th anniversary this year. An addition is in progress to handle continued growth. Of special interest is the donation made in 1920 by Miss Sarah Battelle of World War I posters brought back from France where she served as a centeen worker with the YMCA.

These posters are on display in the library. They are being raffled at the July 15 Book Sale to be held in Shipyard Park during Harbor Days. Chances are $5 each and may be purchased at either the library or at the book sale. Proceeds will help with the continued growth of the library.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

June 15, 2004

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, June 15 at 7:02 pm by Chairman Raymond H. Andrews. Also present were Selectman Stephen J. Lombard, Selectman Jordan C. Collyer, Town Administrator Michael J. Botelho, and Assistant to the Town Administrator Melody Pacheco.

The board first approved the minutes of the June 1, 2004 meetings; approved a one-day liquor license for the American Legion for their Annual Clambake to be held on July 11 at the Holy Ghost Grounds; voted to appoint Eloise Ricciardelli and Jacqueline C. Pullo to the Mattapoisett Cultural Council; voted to appoint Selectman Collyer as their representative to the Soil Conservation Board; and voted to appoint Brett D. Moreau to the Tree Planting Committee.

At 7:05 pm the board met with Water/Sewer Superintendent William T. Nicholson to discuss cutting back on office hours due to a shortage of staff in his department.

"As you may or may not know, we have no clerical staff at this point and we've always had a heavy workload," Mr. Nicholson said. "I had some discussions with the (Water/Sewer Commissioners) and we decided to close down the offices on Tuesday and Thursday, starting June 17. We have so much work to get caught up on."

"I was there Monday and it took a while just to talk to you," Selectman Lombard agreed.

"I'm going to post (the hours) on the door so people are aware of it," Mr. Nicholson said. "I'll report back to you and let you know what's happening."

Mr. Nicholson noted that effective June 17, the

At 7:10 pm the board met with Fire Chief Ronald Scott to discuss the proposed fireworks display to be held for The Bay Club's Grand Opening celebration on Friday, July 2. Chief Scott said as the issuing authority for the town, he has approved all the necessary paperwork and permits for the July 2 display, slated to begin around 9:00 or 9:30 pm at The Bay Club off Route 6. The display will be run by Atlas Pyrotechnics of New Hampshire.

Scott said. "When the fireworks show up, the minute they hit town, there's a fire detail attached to them. Just prior to the show, a fire truck will be (on scene) until the shooting is done. Upon completion, the area will be policed ... (and) at the first dawn, someone has to do a walk-through of the site."

Chief Scott said that although this is a private fireworks show, he's sure that the display will be visible from other areas of town. The Fire Department also reserves the right to stop the display if conditions are considered hazardous.

"We'll be on top of them, that's for sure," Chief Scott said. "It had to be 1958 or '1960 since we've had fireworks in Mattapoisett. In most towns, you have to put them on a barge ... but they're going to shoot them off from the ground. It should be a good thing."

"We just wanted to make sure people had an opportunity to know what's going on," Mr. Botelho said.

"Let's hope for good weather," Chairman Andrews said.

"They've got a rain date of July 4, I think," Chief Scott added.

Under announcements, Selectman Collyer noted:

- The Mattapoisett Cultural Council is seeking new members. Those interested should contact the Board of Selectmen's office.

- The first quarterly Real Estate tax bills will be mailed out by June 30, 2004. The new bill has two payment stubs, your first payment will be due August 1, 2004 and the second payment is due November 1, 2004. The first two bills for Fiscal Year 2005 are estimated and will be based on Fiscal Year 2004's assessed value and 2004's tax rate. To calculate your tax, please visit the Town of Mattapoisett's website: www.mattapoisett.net.

"I thought we were going to hold off on this," Selectman Lombard said.

Deeper in the water column; below the frenzy, the large Bass lie in wait for an easy meal. Fluke fishing is improving also. We have been productive on "Banana Rip" and "Lucas Shoal", Scup and Sea Bass have also returned. They can be found all over Buzzards Bay around the rock piles. - Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Botelho updated the board on pending personnel issues. "First of all, with regard to the Town Accountant, Treasurer and Tax Collector positions, we've gotten seven applications for Treasurer and four for Town Accountant," Mr. Botelho said. "The deadline to apply is June 17."
- Mr. Botelho noted that the board had previously charged him to looking into town employee classifications and pay scales, which he is working on, and until that is completed he's requested a proposal from a local temporary staffing agency to provide a couple of part-time clerical positions. My dog is constantly rubbing his butt on the carpet. My mother says that it means that he has worms except that I have been watching for worms and have not seen any. What's the deal?

You dog is showing signs of infection or distention of his anal glands. These are small sacs just located inside the rectum that contain a musky smelling fluid that is expressed onto the surface of the stool when you dog defecates. Anal gland scent acts to mark a dogs' territory. Causes of irritation to the sacs can be infection, obstruction of the duct exiting the sacs or most commonly allergies. Dogs that scoot, lick their feet obsessively or have recurrent ear infections are show signs of allergies to food or something in the environment.

At 7:32 pm, the board unanimously voted to go into Executive Session with Town Counsel to discuss strategy with respect to collective bargaining issues and would thereafter adjourn for the evening.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

June 14, 2004

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, June 14 at 7:07 pm by Chairman Gary Laboa. Also present were Selectman Bradford Morse, Town Administrator James Huntoon, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere. Selectman Richard Nunes was not present for the meeting.

The board first unanimously approved the minutes of June 1 and June 7 meetings, and then signed and approved payment of an invoice in the amount of $4,644 from Perry, Hicks, Crotty and Deshaies, LLP, for legal services rendered.

The board also approved the release of $133,077.60 in Mass Highway Chapter 90 monies for road repairs done in Rochester. "They've committed the money, we have it, (and) this authorizes that it be released ... it's like a revolving account," Mr. Huntoon said.

Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Huntoon noted there would be a Special Election on Wednesday, June 23 with only two override questions on the ballot from the recent Annual Town Meeting: one to establish and fund a building maintenance position to oversee all town-owned buildings under the jurisdiction of the Highway Department, and the other to allocate $94,000 to fund new classrooms at Memorial School. Both previously passed muster at Town Meeting and need to garner majority votes at the ballot box.

"If the (building maintenance) question doesn't pass, we'll have to decide how to fund these repairs from time to time," Mr. Huntoon said, adding that the board should prepare to meet with the Finance Committee (FinCom) to consider other alternatives.

"If we're not going to have this maintenance position, the different departments will have to cover maintenance out of their (existing) budgets," Chairman Laboa agreed.

In a related matter, Mr. Huntoon said he's been working with Brian Ouellette at Memorial School to determine some of the capital improvements which are needed at the school.

"We need to replace some of the carpeting and tiles," Mr. Huntoon said. "It looks like that's going to be about $50,000. We'll be going out to bid (for that work)."

At 7:15 pm the board met with the Board of Assessors to discuss a Waiver of Supplemental Tax Assessments under a recently passed state bill.

"We'd like to ask you to reject something that you haven't even accepted yet," said Assessor John Mello. "It's Chapter 46, Subsection 41 and 42 of the Acts of 2003 ... also known as the Hopkington Bill."

Mr. Mello said the new legislation allows cities and towns to send out supplemental tax bills for additional assessments on incremental property improvements from January 1 through June 30.

"In towns that have really, really hot growth, I suppose it makes some sense if they have the resources to administer (these bills)," Mr. Mello said. "Most cities and towns have declined this, primarily because of the administrative (needs). The Department of Revenue (DOR) is now requiring towns to do incremental valuations ... in Rochester's case, are we losing by not doing this? Probably not. To us it just seems like a burden."

"The fact that we already adopted the June 30 date for improvement assessments ... also makes it unnecessary," added Assessor Jana Cavanaugh.

"Once you reject this provision, it stays in place for each successive year," Mr. Mello said. "At some later time Rochester can always vote to accept it."

With that, the board unanimously voted to reject adopting the so-called Hopkington Bill upon the Board of Assessors' recommendation.

Under incoming correspondence the board received a letter from Reverend Christopher J. Coyne of the Archdiocese of Boston regarding the potential sale or reuse of property within Rochester. According to Reverend Coyne, an information meeting will be held on Thursday, June 24 from 8:30 am to 12:00 noon at St. John's Seminary in Brighton, MA.

"They've already announced they are going to keep St. Rose of Lima open as a place of worship," Chairman Laboa said. "I'm not sure if we need to attend this."

The board received a notice from the Southeast

Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD) of a meeting to be held on Wednesday, June 23 at 7:00 pm.

Under New Business, Chairman Laboa said Mr. Huntoon prepared a letter concerning work hours in Town Hall which will be discussed before the whole board on June 21.

"I want to have a meeting with the Finance Committee (FinCom) and Town Moderator Greenwood 'Woody' Hartley to review the recent Annual Town Meeting," Chairman Laboa said. "It doesn't have to be the full FinCom if they don't want to. Overall, I thought it went very well for the time we were there."

Mr. Laboa just had some concerns about everyone getting an updated and consistent copy of the Town Meeting warrant and also that all articles had been properly reviewed and approved by Town Counsel beforehand. "(Town Counsel) made a last-minute word-ing change on Town Meeting floor," Chairman Laboa said. "Didn't he see (the articles) beforehand?"

"Between last year and this year, there were two different warrants sent out — one from this office and one from the FinCom," Mr. Huntoon said. "It used to be only one warrant (came out of) the Selectmen's office."

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:43 pm.

Sunday, June 27, 2004

We're celebrating summer here this year with a grand open house featuring beautiful gardens, spectacular scenery, tempting desserts, and gorgeous quilts!

Come join us for a leisurely stroll through the gardens and grounds of our eight acre island.....Roses, clematis, lilies, irises, hanging arrangements and a vast assortment of annnuals and perennials are just a few of the blooms you'll see.

Enjoy the exquisite work of the Shining Tides Quilting Guild and the Tender Loving Quilters on display. The guild will be demonstrating quilting techniques, offering chances to win a fabulous quilt, and many of the quilts will be for sale. And of course, our scrumptious dessert buffet will be the ruin of all diets!

Date: Sunday, June 27, 2004 Rain or Shine! The tents will be up!

Time: 1:00pm to 5:00pm

The Quilts: Will be on display all afternoon. The Shining Tides Quilting Guild, established in 1991 by Laurie Despres, and The Tender Loving Quilters, a group within Shining Tides, will be demonstrating techniques for you to watch. Yes, many will be for sale along with other small items provided by the Guild.

The "Chance"Quilt: The Guild will be offering chances to win a beautiful quilt! The drawing will take place at 5:00pm. You do not have to be present to win.

The Gardens: Tours of the grounds, gardens and woods will take place all day. Of course, the building is open for tours as well. Feel free to bring your camera and "snap" away!

Hans & Hunny: Meet our two golden retrievers! These 3 year old rascals would love to meet you. (Be careful of your dessert plate, these two are chow hounds of the first order!)

The Dessert Buffet: Chocolate, fresh luscious strawberries, cheesecake, pies, brownies, fruit squares, and sweets of every description will tempt the most disciplined amongst you!

Buzzards Bay Regatta

With over 400 boats, the Buzzards Bay Regatta (BBR) is the largest multi-class regatta in the United States. Registrations are already coming in from as far away as California, Illinois and Canada. What attracts these racers from distant waters?

"I believe it's what the BBR is famous for: challenging conditions, Olympic level race management, serious competition and, of course, the post-race camaraderie" said Ray Cullum, Chairman of BBR 2004. The three-day regatta will take place August 6, 7 and 8 at the Beverly Yacht Club in Marion.

World and National Champions routinely compete in their classes which making winning at BBR a major triumph. PHRF fleets are extremely competitive, too, with over 50 large boats fighting for line honors. Typically, class championships run in tandem with the BBR and this year is no exception. The Shields class will hold its New England Championship. A large J/105 fleet will be preparing for their upcoming North America Championship which will be at the Beverly Yacht Club in September. And there may be a one design fleet for the new J/109 given its success and popularity.

The diversity of the racing across the bay is astonishing. This year twelve classes will compete. Racing outside Sippican Harbor will be J/22, J/24, J/105, Shields, Club 420, Vanguard 15, I210, PHRF Race, PHRF Cruise and Multi-hulls. The two Laser classes will race out of the Community Boating Center of New Bedford directly off Fort Taber which is one of the best sites for racing small boats in all of New England. All racers are encouraged to register as soon as possible at www.buzzardsbayregatta.com.

New for 2004 will be Sponsor Displays following the racing on Friday afternoon. Representatives from many of the following companies will be on hand to feature new product offerings and answer questions. This year's sponsors are Harding Sails; West Marine; Mount Gay Rum; Layline.com; Ocean Navigator; Team One

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The Marion Planning Board has undergone a change in how it will approach its two tasks, permitting and planning. Over the last several years, it became apparent that the permitting tasks were monopolizing the Planning Board meetings. Absent a separate meeting dedicated for planning, this left planning, our most important task, as something that would be done "later." For those procrastinators out there, you all know that tomorrow never comes. That is what happened to planning over the last several years.

In an effort to catch up and maintain the primary function of the board, i.e. planning, the Planning Board is meeting every week. The first and third Mondays of each month will be dedicated to permitting issues while the second and fourth Mondays will be dedicated to planning.

Two issues have come up recently, one that requires an opportunity for the public to get accurate information and the other requiring feedback from the public.

In 1996 the Town of Marion adopted the grandfathering provisions for substandard size lots that are recognized by the state zoning law, Chapter 40A. Prior to that time, Marion was one of two towns that had substandard lots protected forever. The lots affected by the 1996 zoning change were protected as buildable lots under the state Zoning Act until 2001. In 1999 the town changed the residential zoning districts for the whole town. Any lots created prior to that time that met the minimum lot size and frontage requirements of the town were made non-conforming. Some of these lots will lose their grandfather protection by state law in October 2004.

For those who owned lots that have lost or soon will lose status as a "buildable" lot, this has a severe financial impact. However, not all substandard sized lots were affected, and there is genuine confusion over the effect on particular lots as the status of the lot depends on lot size, frontage and the ownership of the lot at the time of the relevant zoning change.

To help get proper information to the public, the Planning Board has retained Attorney Jon Witten to address this issue on June 23, 2004 at 7:30 pm in the Multipurpose Room of the Sippican Elementary School. Mr. Witten's walk, "Vested Rights for Non-Conforming Lots in Marion, Massachusetts" will be followed by a question and answer period. If you have any questions about the legal status of these lots, please attend this informational meeting.

A second issue has been percolating for a while and requires a public hearing to get input. Each non-residential project is required to go through a Plan and Site Review process. The Plan and Site Review section of the by-laws are, in part, designed to enhance "the town's architectural and historic heritage ... and require the minimization of undue departure from the character and scale of buildings in the vicinity."

If the previous language seems like a lot of mumbo jumbo, well, it seemed that way to the Planning Board, too. To clear up confusion and to have clearer standards, the Board hired local architect Missy Sittler of CIVITAS Architects & Planners, LLP, to draft building form guidelines. Ms. Sittler surveyed existing buildings in four commercial areas of town as the basis for developing the draft Building Form Guidelines. If adopted, these building form guidelines will be applicable to all non-residential projects. A copy of the draft "Building Form Guidelines for the Planning Board, Town of Marion, June 30, 2003" is available at the Planning Board office. A public hearing will be held on June 28, 2004 in the Main Conference Room of the Marion Town House at 7:30 pm. We encourage you to attend this meeting and give us your feedback.

Sincerely,

John Rockwell, Chairman
Marion Planning Board

To the Editor:

A small tidal brook that is four to five feet wide between Howard Beach and Leisure Shores Beach in Mattapoisett has in the last week undergone a tremendous amount of erosion. Local residents fear the erosion may affect the twenty acres of salt marsh located inland of these beaches. The salt marsh is the inhabitant of several distinct types of plants, birds and animals.

The area of erosion is the same place a large earth moving machine called an excavator was stuck last summer following the Bouchard oil spill. Large wooden pallets were placed under the tank-like treds to remove the machine. During the removal a stone retention wall was also damaged and never repaired along with marsh grass in the area. The buried wooden pallets were still being removed by Bouchard Oil Company contractors as late as May of this year. Immediate action needs to be taken to protect these twenty acres of salt marsh!

toward building a trail for the benefit of OHS' future and present students. The KIDS Consortium promotes service-based learning. We have been switching to a different classroom for about four months, exploring various aspects of our environment, the animals that live in it, and how we, as human beings, can help it.

Recently, we have made a horrible discovery: the nature trail that we had put so much work into had been vandalized. The directional signs have been torn down, as well as the entrance sign, which students carved out of wood. The only thing that was left was the chain on which the sign was hanging. The vandals tore down other signs, too, such as poison ivy and oak awareness, and 'No Litter' signs were found lying on the trail.

Next week, the students were planning a grand opening celebration to introduce the trail to the school. Many students have not yet walked the entire trail. We are devastated about the destruction of the trail that we have worked so hard on. We would like to let as many people as possible know what angry and upset feelings this has caused everyone enrolled at Old Hammondtown School — staff and students.

Sincerely,
The Sixth Grade

acres of wetlands without permits.

Two of the eight sites were located within Rochester:

- Great Bear Farm, James Rezendes – Involved the alteration of a total of two acres of a Bordering Vegetated Wetland (BVW) in two different locations on his property and the construction of a reservoir on part of it. The consent order will require restoration of .5 acres of BVW impacted by failure to implement proper erosion controls in the southeast portion of the property, and a total of 1.5 additional acres of restoration and replication adjacent to the reservoir in the northeast portion of the property. It also requires the payment of a $45,000 penalty.

- Maksy property – Involves the violation of the Federal Clean Water Act with the clear-cutting of three acres of BVW, as well as the alteration of 2.2 acres of BVW, which was put into cranberry production. The negotiated consent order requires the restoration of three acres and the replication of 2.2 acres of wetlands. A $15,000 penalty has been suspended.

DEP Commissioner Robert W. Golledge Jr. announced the enforcement actions, with assessed penalties totaling $358,750 as part of an agency initiative which uses innovative technology to analyze aerial photographs taken years apart to identify wetlands that have been filled illegally.

"Our wetlands mapping and computer analysis continues to pinpoint wetlands that were illegally filled, and we continue to penalize those violators," Mr.

Golledge said. "Protecting wetlands is vital because they serve as natural pollutant filters for water supplies, buffer against floods, and provide valuable habitat."

These cases are the latest in the wetlands enforcement initiative announced last December using the high tech tools to track wetlands change. The DEP is responsible for ensuring clean air and water, safe management and recycling of solid and hazardous wastes, timely cleanup of hazardous waste sites and spills, and the preservation of wetlands and coastal resources.

Oil Spill Bill Advances

State Representative William Straus (D-Mattapoisett) announced recently that the Committee on Natural Resources and Agriculture has given a favorable report to a bill drafted in response to last year's damaging Bouchard oil spill in Buzzards Bay.

The legislation is the result of a special commission, of which Representative Straus is a member, and that was created to study the ecological and environmental impacts of the oil spill. The bill is aimed to tighten the law to prevent future oil spills by increasing the fines and penalties for discharging oil and providing for increased watches on tugs and barges including stricter requirements for drug and alcohol testing.

Some other highlights of the bill include language that directs the Secretary of Environmental Affairs to designate "areas of special interest" like Buzzards Bay, Mount Hope Bay, and Vineyard Sound as having unique navigational challenges or environmental and economic concerns. The bill would require state pilots to board all vessels towing barges carrying oil or hazardous materials through these specifically identified waterways.

The bill also instructs the Commissioner of the state's Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) to negotiate and agreement with the U.S. Coast Guard to implement a Vessel Traffic Service that monitors the speed, the course and destination of the vessels traveling through state waters.

In addition, a fund will be established to pay for any expenses the Commonwealth incurs while protecting the waterways from oil spills. The money will be used to support the development and training of safety committees and equipping the response teams that respond to oil spills and other environmental threats to the waterways.

"As the Bouchard oil spill demonstrated, these spills have a devastating effect on our communities," Representative Straus said. "More than a year later, we are still cleaning up. This legislation will provide greater protection against such spills by regulating the vessels

Mattapoisett Council on Aging

The Mattapoisett Council on Aging (COA) intends to carry on as many scheduled activities as possible with volunteer help, as they begin the search for a replacement for COA Director Cynthia Paige on her retirement. The COA voted at its June meeting to change the times the Senior Center will open to its clients. The new hours will be 9:00 am to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 pm. However, van pickups at other locations scheduled before 9:00 will continue as in the past. The new hours will ease the burden on volunteers and allow more time to begin the process of transferring the Senior Center to Center School.

For the week of June 24 - 28, the scheduled activities are as follows:

- Friday, June 18 - Shaws 8:00 am; Weight Training 9:30 am;

Goodies at Marion Library

Starting June 28, each time you read a library book you can enter to win up to three free video or DVD rentals (worth up to $6). The Elizabeth Taber library in Marion will be picking winners weekly to reward avid readers. This six-week program is designed to be fun and easy to do: just sign up, read a book, fill out a short entry form and put it in the "Bloom with Books" Box.

"We hope to encourage everyone to read more," said Library Director Judie Kleven. "The summer is such a great time to relax with a good book — on the beach, on a boat or on the deck. And it will give parents even more incentive to keep up with their children's library participation."

As usual, the helpful staff at Elizabeth Taber is always ready to suggest titles to read from old favorites or new acquisitions. And if the book you want isn't on premise, you can order it using the SAILS Network to access the contents of 70 libraries across Southeastern Massachusetts. Your selection will arrive in just a few

Fairhaven's Costume Parade

Wear a costume, march in a parade, watch the firing of the Fort Phoenix cannons and see reenactors from different periods of time fire a gun salute at this year's American History Costume Parade, sponsored by the Fairhaven Office of Tourism on Monday, July 5, at 9:30 am. Adults and children are invited to dress as their favorite characters from any period of American history to walk from Cushman Park to Fort Phoenix.

The parade will form between 9:00 am and 9:30 am on the Green Street side of Cushman Park, near the band shell. Anyone dressed in costume may show up to march in the parade. Also scheduled to appear are restored antique and classic vehicles, the Hepcats Swing Dancers and more.

"Parade Marshal Charles Cromwell is putting together a nice parade," said Fairhaven's Tourism Director Christopher Richard. "Of course we still rely on children and adults showing up in costume to march, too. This is a family event that anyone may take part in. Over the years we've seen so many great costumes worn by young and old alike."

Blues Duo in Mattapoisett

The award winning blues duo of Paul Rishell and Annie Raines will bring their fiery brand of roots music to the area on Friday, June 25 for the Red, White and Blues concert in Mattapoisett Congregational Church's Reynard Hall. The show begins at 8:00 pm.

Winners of the 2000 W.C. Handy Award for Best Acoustic Blues Album, Rishell and Raines display incredible versatility and the ability to write and rearrange Country Blues with a contemporary sensibility and a timeless feel. For the Red, White and Blues show, the duo will stomp, croon, pick, and wail their way across time and place, with delicate ragtime pieces, soul-drenched Delta moans, and the smokestack lightning of Chicago Blues.

Steel guitarist Rishell, who played with the legendary Son House and Howlin' Wolf, is a master of the intricate and rhythmic fingerpicking styles of Blind Lemon Jefferson and Robert Johnson. Raines, a harmonica virtuoso often regarded as the world's best female blues harp player, plays in the styles of Muddy Waters and Sonny Boy Williamson. She has recorded with the likes of Ronnie Earl and Pinetop Perkins as well as with former band-mate Susan Tedeschi.

The pair's critically acclaimed third album, Goin' Home was released last year on Tone-Cool records.

Tickets for Paul Rishell and Annie Raines are available now at The Symphony Music Shop, 94 State Road, North Dartmouth (508-996-3301), or at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church office, Tuesday through Friday, 9:00 am to 12:00 noon. Tickets are $15 and tables for four can be reserved for $60. The doors will open at 6:30 pm and food and refreshments will be sold prior to the event. The Red, White and Blues concert is part of Mattapoisett Congregational Church's occasional "Music at the Congo Club" series. All proceeds go to benefit the church and its various missions throughout the community.

Reynard Hall is located on Church Street in Mattapoisett's village adjacent to the Congregational Church.

Elizabeth Taber Library in Marion this summer. Children ages 2 to 12 are invited to explore a garden of reading delights for six weeks beginning Monday, June 28.

The program begins with an ice cream sundae social and ends with "Magic and More," a performance by magician Steve Rudolph. In between there will be special events, drop-in activities and storytimes for babies, toddlers, and young children. New this year is "The Lunch Bunch," a read-aloud series for children ages 7 to 9 years old. Pre-readers can help decorate the "Wall in Bloom!" each time they visit the library. Independent readers and families reading together can keep track of their time spent reading for fun and prizes. Students going into Grades 5-9 can become Junior Volunteers, learning to be library pages and helping out with the summer program. A complete calendar of events is available at the library or online at www.sailsinc.org/marion.

Marsha Rehkamp, Elizabeth Taber Library Children's Librarian, and Marie Pimental, Sippican School Resource Specialist, have put together suggestions for great summer reads for children going into the First through Sixth Grades. All the books on the lists are available at the Elizabeth Taber Library as well as at other libraries in the SAILS Library Network. This month, students at Sippican School will be given a copy of the list for the grade they are going into. A complete copy of the lists for all grades is available at the Elizabeth Taber Library, as well as on the library's website.

A major illness can be financially costly considering the price of gas to travel to physicians and treatment visits, special foods, medications, child care, and many other expenses.

With this in mind, a Community Yard Sale will be held on Saturday, June 19 at the Knights of Columbus parking lot on Route 6 in Mattapoisett from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. Pops Concert and Fireworks

The University of Massachusetts Dartmouth will hold its Tenth Annual Independence Day Pops Concert and Fireworks Display on Friday, July 2 beginning at 6:00 pm. Weather-permitting, UMass anticipates a large and enthusiastic audience, estimated at more than 20,000.

"Ten years ago, UMass Dartmouth and the Town of Dartmouth broke new ground by creating a new community celebration of Independence Day — a spectacular Pops concert by the New Bedford Symphony Orchestra and a wonderful fireworks display," said UMass Dartmouth Chancellor Jean F. MacCormack. "This truly is a unique regional tradition. It is my great pleasure to invite every Dartmouth and SouthCoast resident to join us on the UMD campus on the evening of Friday, July 2."

Visitors are encouraged to bring along picnic suppers, lawn chairs, bug spray, and blankets to make themselves comfortable while enjoying this magnificent evening in the campus quadrangle area. The campus will be open all day and guests are invited to arrive anytime after 4:30 pm to find the best available seating. Concession stands and vendors will have a variety of foods and novelty products available for sale to the public. This community celebration is presented as a family-oriented, alcohol-free event.

The "Sounds of Ashe," a university student-faculty jazz ensemble will lead off the musical program at 6:00 pm. Under the direction of UMD Professor Santi

MOVIE REVIEW

Suburban Legend

By Rob Gonsalves
<http://robsreviews.cjb.net>

The Stepford Wives. Starring Nicole Kidman and Matthew Broderick. Directed by Frank Oz. Running time: 93 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13.

When Ira Levin's novel The Stepford Wives hit stores in 1972, it hit like a lightning bolt. It used a mix of sci-fi and horror to cut right to the heart of the gender war — the backlash against feminism, the dark fears of what men really wanted. It sold many, many copies, and the first film version (1975) was so successful it spawned three made-for-TV sequels (including The Stepford Children and The Stepford Husbands). Now comes a "comedic re-imagining" (doesn't anyone want to call a remake anymore?), and my prediction is that it will go nowhere. Its concerns are simply not our concerns now. The movie congratulates us for rejecting sexist notions that the majority of us put to sleep decades ago.

It's true that a funny remake might've been possible, if set in the '70s. But this Stepford Wives is pointedly set now, when fabulous network executive Joanna Eberhart (Nicole Kidman) gloats over her new reality shows that pit gender against gender. (A hapless victim of one of the shows, I Can Do Better!, is played by actor-writer Mike White in a vivid cameo that brings up emotions that the movie can't deal with.) Joanna is soon dumped from the network, and she and her schlumpy husband Walter (Matthew Broderick) and their two kids move to Stepford, Connecticut, a gated community full of suspiciously chipper and "perfect" women married to smug dweebs.

Screenwriter Paul Rudnick tries to establish the post-feminist complaint that many career women, having tasted power, have become as corrupt and establishment as the men, and have neglected their families just as much. Joanna's reality shows reveal a strong male resentment of women's freedom to choose (or at least to choose foolishly). Okay, so men and women both suck — what else is new? Rudnick, whose reputation as a sharp wit is fading fast, follows the basic template of the earlier versions of the story, but the male-female attitudes seem yellowed with age. He does much better with the gay and Jewish humor, relaxing into bitchy, comfortable repartee voiced by Bette Midler's Jewish-feminist author and Roger Bart's swishy urban gay man. Midler and Bart are the sole curators of the film's laughs.

The movie could only have worked as an overbaked parody, but director Frank Oz, despite some feinting towards an antiegotistic Tim Burton style, just doesn't have his heart in it. When Walter is surrounded by the shadowy, red-jacketed men of Stepford, led by a leonine Christopher Walken in full sinister bloom, Stepford Wives hits the tone it seems to be straining for. But most of the movie is blandly designed, with a performance by Nicole Kidman to match. As in To Die For, she doesn't play emotion — she plays her idea of dark-comedy caricature of emotion. As a remedy for this film, which gives Kidman nothing to do except walk in Katharine Ross's footsteps, I refer you to her work in Dogville, which digs far deeper into the realities of how men and women use each other, and how a challenging personality can be subjugated to a rigid community.

I saw various couples at The Stepford Wives. What could the film give them to discuss? Of what relevance is this 1972 story to us now? What hurts the film most is that the openly gay Paul Rudnick doesn't seem all that horrified by the fate of the Stepford women; he seems to find it kind of funny, the way he finds all surface-obsessed women (such as Lisa Kudrow in the awful Marci X and his own creation for Premiere magazine "Libby Gelman-Waxner") comical and lovably blinkered. When Glenn Close leads a group of Stepford wives in a ridiculous aerobics session that employs household-cleaning motions, we're not supposed to be shocked; we're supposed to laugh (unfortunately, we don't). The audience feels much worse when the chatty gay man becomes a boring gay Republican, or when the slobby, Jewish Bette Midler turns up Stepfordized. This Stepford Wives isn't about the war between the genders; it's more about Jews and gays vs. hetero WASPs. But Rudnick did that already, brilliantly and subtly coded, in the Addams Family movies. Maybe it's time for this once-gifted comedy writer to find something else to say.

Jazz Combo On Fire

By Kenneth J. Souza
news@wanderer.com

• Conflagration - The Old Rochester Regional High School Jazz Combo, seven tracks, total time 42:32, Stan Ellis Publishing, 2004.

I have to fully disclose that my total experience with and knowledge of jazz music is woefully limited to more popular artists like Kenny G, Harry Connick, Jr. or even dabblings by the likes of Joe Jackson and Brian Setzer. I've always gravitated more towards traditional classical music and blues in my personal tastes, so please don't hold that against me.

That being said, I was wholly impressed and virtually blown away by Conflagration, the new seven-track CD session featuring The Old Rochester Regional High School Jazz Combo, under the able direction of Stan Ellis. Recorded at Jack Martin Studios in nearby Acushnet on May 17 and 18, this is no mere "demo" disc or musical calling card. Frankly, the award-winning combo needs no introduction to tri-town ears. Instead, Conflagration is one of the most professionally-executed debut recordings I've ever heard and stands as the culmination of years of hard work on the part of the five talented musicians involved.

Like most in the tri-town area, I've had the distinct pleasure of seeing the ORR High School Jazz Combo perform at various live venues from time to time, but Conflagration is a rare opportunity to hear the group perform within the confines of a professional recording studio. I'm proud to report that not only does the combo pass with flying colors, but there's a tightness and assuredness in their playing on these tracks that wasn't noticeable during their live performances.

From the opening chords of "Slow Sleuth Sue," there's no mistaking the solid bottom rhythm section of bassist John Ogren and drummer Derek Eilertsen; soon to be joined and led by the lilting sounds of saxophonist Trevor Kellum and trumpeter Nick Gordon; all of which is peppered and driven with the Latin percussion of Justin Dewalt. That this tasty musical dish has been prepared and served by five high school musicians is even more a tribute to their talents and the able guidance of Mr. Ellis, who not only produced and arranged all the music here, but wrote four of the seven original selections on the CD. The other two originals — "Good for You" and the title track "Conflagration" — were written by student Trevor Kellum.

Both of Kellum's compositions stand up well alongside the more-seasoned Ellis tunes, and the entire CD has a great fun vibe to it that is certainly the result of the students' enthusiasm at laying down tracks for their first recording session. Other songs include "Con El Viento," "New Country Way," "Nick the Hammer" (my personal favorite which sounds like something Steely Dan might do), and a unique, bouncy new arrangement of "Nature Boy," an old Nat King Cole tune.

In the CD's liner notes, Mr. Ellis notes that the session's title is defined as "fire" and he feels these five musicians "certainly produce a great deal of that in their playing ... no teacher could be prouder of these five students than I am." Mr. Ellis expects the CD to get some local airplay on area jazz stations and the disc is also available for sale to those interested. If you would like to purchase a copy, please contact Stan Ellis at 508-548-3271 or 508-758-9226.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Things that usually come easily and quickly for the Aries Lamb might need more of your time and attention during the next several days. Try to be patient as you work things out.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A changing situation can create some complications. But if you apply that sensible Bovine mind to what seems to be a hopeless tangle of confusion, you'll soon sort things out.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Creating a new look for your surroundings is fun. Expect to hear mostly positive comments on your efforts, as well as some well-intended suggestions you might want to note.
CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Maybe you'd rather do anything else than what you're "stuck with" right now. But if you stop complaining, you might see how this could lead to something with real potential.
LEO (July 23 to August 22) Even a proud Leo ultimately recovers from hurt feelings. However, a damaged relationship might never heal unless you're willing to spend more time and effort trying to work things out.
VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) There are lots of changes on the horizon, so be prepared to make some adjustments in your usually fine-tuned life. One change might even impact a personal decision you've been putting off.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Being the dependable person you are could work in your favor for a project that requires both skill and accountability. But check this out carefully. There could be a hidden downside.
SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A temperamental outburst about a mishandled project causes some fallout. Be sure to couple an apology with an explanation. A new opportunity beckons by week's end.
SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Changing horses midstream is usually unwise but sometimes necessary. Examine your options carefully before making a decision. A trusted colleague offers good advice.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19)

While much of your time is involved with business matters, fun-time opportunities open up by week's end. Enjoy yourself, but be careful that you don't overspend.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A "revelation" opens your eyes to what is really going on in the workplace. What you learn could make a difference in your career path. Continue to be alert for more news.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Not wanting to make waves might be the safest way to deal with a difficult situation. But no substantive changes can be made unless you share your assessments with others.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a way of talking to people that makes them want to listen. You could find a successful career in politics.

Fresh Air Fund

Summer vacation, that special time of year for all children, is not far away. Here's an opportunity to share the beauty of the Mattapoisett and Marion area with others less fortunate — Volunteer for the Fresh Air Fund and host an inner-city child. This summer, join thousands of volunteer host families in 13 Northeastern states and Canada as they open their hearts and homes to New York City children from low-income neighborhoods through the Fund's Friendly Town Program. The Friendly Town Program allows youngsters from New York City to experience simple summer pleasures like skipping rocks across a lake, enjoying the smell of newly-cut grass, and making new suburban country friends.
